Nurturing Human Capital for sustainable Growth

Engage, Empower, Evolve

The objective of the 2 day HR Conference is to find right conjecture between various key elements of human capital to ensure that sustainable development of business is made possible where by excellence is nurtured and assured. The conference will have innovative workshops and panel discussions so as to reach a curve where we strike a right balance between Engagement, empowerment and evolution, which occurs In this age of disruptions in all spheres of business cycle which involves customer connect, business to business collaborations and transactional activities.

Analytical leadership traits drive values along the three major attributes of Inspire, Connect & Empathise. This conference aims to trigger focus on the key elements underlying transformational leadership, a Key imperative to organizations across the globe. The art of getting change management flow in a defined path is scientifically driven, whereby artificial intelligence, machine learning and analytics driven synergy do matter but what matters most is 'People with learning mindset' who have power to make things happen, lead teams from despair to hope and sail through even when sea is disruptive and rough. The Conference would deliberate and focus on contemporary issues involving Leadership, People and Technology.
